TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. Introduction:

Resource Rights Africa is a research and advocacy organization formed in 2016 to advocate for the promotion and protection of people's rights in Uganda. The organization exists to champion social justice for all. We oppose discrimination, inequality, abuse of power and the unsustainable use of our natural resources including oil and gas, minerals, land, forests, water bodies as well as flora and fauna.

RRA is one of the most dynamic and robust regional leaders in cutting-edge public policy research and analysis in a range of areas including extractives, land, climate change, taxation and gender.

RRA's work is based on four (04) broad programme areas: Natural Resource Governance, Climate Change and Livelihoods, Tax Justice, Agriculture Budget Monitoring and Advocacy. Our core business is to undertake advocacy-driven public policy research and analysis on contemporary and emerging public policy and governance issues that have a significant impact on national development.

Vision

A just and peaceful world free from human rights violations.

Mission

The mission of RRA is to advance social change for the protection and promotion of human rights where basic needs are met and resources are shared equitably; where people have control over their own lives and those in power act for the common good.

Values and Principles

The principles which guide a Financial Policy need to reflect the values of the organization.

The principles on which this policy is based are:

- i. RRA recognizes that people are the key resource in the organization; in that only through people can other resources be fully and effectively utilized.
- ii. We recognize that we must practice proper financial procedures, so that current performance and future development can be assured, and that adequate resources must therefore be planned for and provided in line with normal budgetary arrangements.
- iii. Every member of staff has a right of access to support and to available resources and opportunities to enable them develop and fulfill their responsibilities.
- iv. Requirements associated with the finance policy should be commensurate to the organizations' charitable status.
